Writ Petition (C) No.17498 of 2007-G

Judgment

Balakrishnan Nair, J.

The petitioner has approached this Court, alleging that respondents 4 to 8 are threatening his life and that of his family members. His brother was running a chitty. Since the business failed, he went to Gulf. Money is due to several persons from his brother and therefore, they are approaching the petitioner and harassing him for repayment of the money due to them from his brother. So, he has filed Ext.P1 petition before the Police, seeking protection to his life. The learned Government Pleader upon instruction, submitted that there is no law and order problem in the area as contended by the petitioner. So far, there was no occasion for registering even a crime, it is submitted. If there is any apprehension of threat or violence from the part of the party respondents, the petitioner may inform the SI of Police and in that event, the said Officer will look into the same and take appropriate action in accordance with law.

The Writ Petition is disposed of as above.
